THE PERIOD OF FOUNDATION 1927-1930

Dr. Eugene C. Sanderson and Dr. Thomas Henry Johnson founded a college adjacent to Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas. Based on commitment to Christ and sound scholarship, the institution was set as a bastion against theological liberalism and for the preparation of young men and women who were committed to a mature ministry of world evangelism and Christian edification.

Graduates of 1929 were Marion A. Brown, A.B.; Mrs. S. M. Smith, A.B.; and Rufus C. Mowery, B.B.L.

Graduates of 1930 were Rex A. Harmon, A.B.; Mrs. Bernie Matson, A.B.; R. C. McCord, A.B.; and Rufus C. Mowery, A.B.

THE PERIOD OF FRUSTRATION 1930-1945

The college proudly built "The Stone Building" then promptly lost it due to drought and depression. Dr. Johnson, his colleagues, and students "hung on" until the drought was broken and the depression began to subside. "The Stone Building," now to be called "Joliffe Hall," was recovered.

THE PERIOD OF STABILIZATION 1945-1967

Buckles House, Christine House, and "the Kelly Bungalow" were acquired. The student body grew to exceed one hundred students, but the untimely death of Dr. Johnson on May 10, 1952, struck sadness and discouragement to our hearts. Presidents Burgess and Thurston served short terms of office. President Lown was called in July 1955. The college was functioning as a mature institution of higher education during these years. The Lord was preparing her for greater things.

THE PERIOD OF EXPANSION 1968-1977

Long-range planning, innovative education, and growth have characterized this era. Multiple-option programs of study in conjunction with Kansas State University enable Christian students to prepare for lives of service for Christ in a wide variety of professions - both church-related and non-church-related.

Every student, regardless of his professional goals, prepares for the vocation of serving Christ. The student body is greatly enlarged; the campus now includes nearly four city blocks, adjacent to Kansas State University; and the challenge of preparing a versatile ministry for the church is before us!

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

For MCC the 1977 school year was one of spiritual and physical growth. Almost three hundred students populated the classrooms.

The term began with Freshman Orientation, complete with tours, testing, food, softball, a talent show, and a special faculty "opera" presentation, "The Grasshopper". Shem Taggart, the new music professor, was introduced.

In place of the faculty open house, MCC Women hosted an ice cream social (pictured on page seven), moderated by Denny Glenn. Both faculty and students participated in a "scrumpdillyshus" evening, including a "melodrama", readings, ragtime piano, the faculty quartet, sketches, devotions by Shem Taggart, and gallons of heavenly home-made ice cream.

Shortly after the end of freshman probation came Missions Emphasis Week (September 28-30, 1976), featuring slides, seminars, and sermons from Richard Hicks (campus minister in Sao Paulo, Brazil), David Filbeck (of Pioneer Bible Translators), and Duane King (of Deaf Missions in Council Bluffs, Iowa). This year's theme was "Ambassadors for Christ." On October 12-14, Harry Ropp, director of Mission to Mormons, spoke on the growing cult of Mormonism.

Session number one of Junior-Senior Days was held on October 14-15. Approximately two weeks later, Gerald Gibson brought stirring, fast-paced messages to the annual campus revival.

November 5 was the date of the Benefit Dinner. Senator Mark Hatfield spoke, and Kim Clowe's Celebration Singers provided the evening's entertainment.

Session number two of Junior-Senior Days included a program with emcee John Welter. Special guests included Linda Hall, former Miss Kansas; and Donna Brown, a gospel singer. President Lown was the speaker for the evening. The last event for November was the Standard Publishing Company Idea Workshop, a program which substituted for the Athearn lectures.

Close behind the Winter Banquet (December 3) was the Christmas Concert (December 9), performed by the Celebration Singers, the Inspiration Ringers, the brass choir, and the New Creation (the new women's chorus, under the direction of Professor Shem Taggart). The Ringers held their own concert, the Christmas Ring, on December 11 and 12.

The spring semester began as anything but spring, but the sub-zero temperatures were tolerated. The big "warm spell" in February was in the form of the T. H. Johnson Memorial Preaching Convention, the theme of which was "The Golden Age for Proclamation". W. F. Lown, Kenneth Cable, Barbara Hamm, James Carr, Knofel Staton, Ed Towne, Martha Amlong, and Leonard Wymore headlined the convention, although Leonard Wymore became ill and had President Lown to substitute. Workshops were held by Knofel Staton, Ed Towne, Joan Leach, Roy Wheeler, Kenneth Cable, Carol Hieronymus, Gene Carlson, and Charles Gresham. Moderators, singers, accompanists, babysitters, and the MCC Women all contributed to a highly successful convention.

Less than one week later, the Celebration Singers performed the praise drama "Beginnings", utilizing twenty-two instruments (including an anvil, gong, and bell tree), mime, and interpretative dance to tell the story of the creation and the life of Christ.

For Spring Break, many students headed for Horn Creek Ranch (in Westcliffe, Colorado), the ideal place to eat well, play hard, and grow closer to the Lord. Lessons were brought by Hiram Cassel, Dr. Leach, and Charles Cook.

The Women's World Retreat was held on March 25. One week later, prospective students converged on the campus for MCC Days, a two-day encounter with MCC and God's Word through dinner theater, preaching, and discovery sessions. On the program were Don Wilson, Les Christie, Dean Burton, Hiram and Marcy Cassel, Bob Chitwood, James Cunningham, Tom Hawks, Dick Jorgenson, W. F. Lown, Jim McElroy, and David Roadcup.

On April 1, 1977, faculty and administration were roused from sleep at 5:30 a.m., arrested, and delivered to the Campus Center to sing for their breakfast and await trial. Some faculty members had to see impersonations of their own classes, e.g., the banana-peel choir. The entire occasion was another well-remembered Skip Day.

Professors Betty Aldridge, Joan Leach, Dale Aldridge, and others led the third annual Christian Education Seminar, held April 16 and 23. A new feature was a series of demonstration classes.

Socially, the school year ended with the Spring Banquet (with speaker Jim McElroy), the Alumni-Senior Banquet (with speaker George Wood), and the Senior-Faculty-Staff Banquet. Musically, the Spring Tour Home Concert provided the finale; in addition, the Singers and Ringers produced another record album, "Go Out with Joy", named for the theme of this year's tour. New Creation, which toured during the year, gave a joint concert with the brass and recorder ensembles.

In sports, MCC fared fairly well, compiling a 6/4 soccer record, a 9/14 basketball record, and a 4/4 baseball record. In league tournaments women placed first in tennis; men were consolation winners. In golf, men placed fourth. In bowling, women placed first; men, second.

Off campus, highlights included KSU appearances by Josh McDowell and by Truth.

Incidentally, amid all the activity, regular classes and chapels were held.

After the school year had concluded, the Singers and Ringers went east for their tour, including a performance on the Capitol steps in Washington, D.C.; the Ringers had their own tour and held workshops at the North American Convention; Dennis Johnson acquired an assistant, Charles Smith; summer school began; and work-study crews undertook the current projects to improve the campus; e.g., the College Service Center in Joliffe Hall, "stoning" the music building, converting 1446 Fairchild into radio and drama rooms, and moving Dr. Virgil Warren (MCC's newest faculty member) into his office.

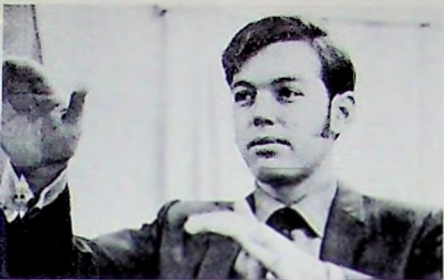

MCC has grown to include ninety percent of a four-block area, excluding newly-acquired Sanderson Hall and 1415 Fairchild. In 1975 and 1976, Buckles' house and the three houses west were razed to allow for expansion.

The Spirit of '77 has assumed many forms, but basically it is the same as that of the preceding forty-nine years - the spirit of proclaiming the Word of God. Praise Him for working through MCC's administration, staff, faculty, students, and supporters for fifty years.

One cannot close the pages of this anniversary year-book without remembering those who serve or have served on the mission field: Harland Cary, Warren Dittmore, Phil and Maggie (Margaret Eberly) Edwards, Eddie and Donna Elliston, Darylee Follis, Richard and Lynn (Hoyle) Hicks, Ron and Haven (Oberhelman) Howard, Frances Johnson, Oliver D. Johnson, Lynda Ruth McClintock, Barton and Betty McElroy (pictured), Ruth Spurgeon McKinley, Spence and Deana (Burton) Moore, Tim and Cathi Newton, Harlan and Barbara Sandell, and Dewey and Barbara Thackston. May many others heed the call when He speaks and follow where He leads.

"Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine."

"But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves."

May God bless Manhattan Christian College as she enters her second fifty years of proclamation.
